|----------------------------|----|
| Thursday Plenary | 1 |
| Friday Plenary | 2 |
| Saturday Plenary | 3 |
| Poster Session A | 3 |
| Poster Session B | 7 |
| Poster Session C | 10 |
| Poster Session D | 14 |

Presentations marked with an asterisk (*) on the program are those indicated as influenced by Janet Dean Fodor and/or her work.

Thursday Plenary

| Time | Thursday |
|-------|--|
| 8:30 | Breakfast |
| 8:50 | Welcome |
| | Session 1. Chair: Dave Kush |
| 9:00 | Memory retrieval in presupposition processing: 3 eye-tracking experiments (Tijn Schmitz, Jakub Dotlacil, Rick Nouwen) |
| 9:30 | A transient binding model of interference in sentence processing (Maayan Keshev, Mandy Cartner, Aya Meltzer-Asscher, Brian Dillon) |
| 10:00 | A memory-based account of robust negative polarity illusion effects (Yuhan Zhang, Edward Gibson) |
| 10:30 | Coffee and Snack Break |
| | Session 2. Chair: E. Matthew Husband |
| 10:50 | Invited Presenter: Frances Blanchette - What's in a grammar? Shared representations in contexts of dialect diversity |
| 11:40 | Theta-gamma coupling as an EEG signal for event processing in language (Wesley Leong, Gerry Altmann) |
| 12:10 | Lunch on your own |
| | Session 3. Chair: Emily Atkinson |

| | |
|-------|--|
| 13:30 | How far ahead does prediction span? The timing of verb pre-activation during sentence comprehension (Jeonghwa Cho, Shota Momma, Jonathan Brennan) |
| 14:00 | Two ERP experiments challenging existing accounts of the N400 semantic illusion (Kate Stone, Milena Rabovsky) |
| 14:30 | Successor surprisal effect in reading: a brain electric potential study with and without parafoveal preview (Gaisha Oralova, Lin Chen, Charles Perfetti) |
| 15:00 | Coffee and Snack Break |
| | Session 4. Chair: Emily Morgan |
| 15:20 | Invited Presenter: Pia Knoeferle - Social context effects on language comprehension |
| 16:10 | Cognitive control supports recovery from misanalysis: Evidence from neural oscillations (Valerie Langlois, Madeleine Wade, Angela Montiel, Tal Ness, Jared Novick, Albert Kim) |
| 16:40 | *The immediate effect of the crossover constraint on pronoun resolution in English (Jun Lyu, Elsi Kaiser) |
| 17:10 | Break |
| 17:20 | Posters A (5:20-6:40pm) |
| 20:00 | Reception (8-11pm) |

Friday Plenary

| Time | Friday |
|-------|---|
| 8:30 | Breakfast |
| | Session 5: Socially Situated Language Processing. Chair: Cynthia Lukyanenko |
| 9:00 | Pronoun Interpretation Highlights the Robustness of Social Perspective Reasoning (Tiana Simovic, Craig Chambers) |
| 9:30 | Morphosyntax plays a unique role in listeners' expectations about minoritized language (Zachary Maher, Jan Edwards, Jared Novick) |
| 10:00 | Debunking the stigma of "disfluency": Perception of interpolation in naturalistic speech (Jonathan Him Nok Lee, Anna Papafragou) |
| 10:30 | Coffee and Snack Break |
| | Session 6. Chair: Yi Ting Huang |
| 10:50 | Invited Presenter: Alayo Tripp - Critical Developmental Psycholinguistics: Connecting Metalinguistic Knowledge and Social Power |
| 11:40 | Effects of contextual constraint on word recognition in adults and 4-5 year-old children (Margaret Kandel, Nan Li, Jesse Snedeker) |
| 12:10 | Lunch on your own (Glossa Psycholinguistics: Meet the Editors in plenary room) |
| 13:20 | Posters B (1:20-2:40pm) |
| | Session 7. Chair: Dustin Chacón |
| 14:40 | The Trait-Like Nature of Bridging and Instrument Inferences in Younger and Older Adults: An Individual Differences Study (Sonny Wang, Craig Chambers) |
| 15:10 | Coffee and Snack Break |
| | Session 8. Chair: Liina Pyllkkänen |

| | |
|-------|---|
| 15:30 | Contextual, lexical, and sublexical effects on braille reading (Colin Wilson, Zaida McClinton, Emily Silvano, Clarissa Alfonso, Laila Paredes Jaicaman, Hannah Yun, Marina Bedny) |
| 16:00 | Prolific vs. MTurk: Differences in overall reading times and accuracy, but not effect sizes. (Grusha Prasad, Omar Fargally) |
| 16:30 | Speed Mentoring (meet in plenary room) |
| 17:00 | Posters C (5:00-6:20pm) |

Saturday Plenary

| Time | Saturday |
|-------|--|
| 8:30 | Breakfast |
| | Session 9. Chair: Jennifer Arnold |
| 9:00 | Are word predictability effects really linear? A critical reanalysis of key evidence (Cory Shain, Clara Meister, Tiago Pimentel, Ryan Cotterell, Roger Levy) |
| 9:30 | Form prediction and competitor suppression in sentence reading: Evidence from German (Katja Haeuser) |
| 10:00 | The influence of top-down grammatical knowledge on the rapid visual perception of full sentences: MEG evidence (Nigel Flower, Liina Pyykkänen) |
| 10:30 | Coffee and Snack Break |
| | Session 10. Chair: Victor Ferreira |
| 10:50 | Invited Presenter: Shiri Lev-Ari - Language from a social networks perspective |
| 11:40 | Unpacking additivity biases reveal the class of sampling algorithm for word predictability (Yutong Zhang, Matthew Husband) |
| 12:10 | Lunch on your own (NSF Linguistics: Meet the program officer in plenary room) |
| 13:20 | Posters D (1:20-2:40pm) |
| | Session 11. Chair: Matthew Traxler |
| 14:40 | *Delayed structural prediction for relative clauses in Santiago Laxopa Zapotec, a language with robust resumptive pronouns (John Duff, Delaney Gomez-Jackson, Fe Silva Robles, Maziar Toosarvandani, Matthew Wagers) |
| 15:10 | Hungarian relative clause processing: Diverging Results in L-maze and A-Maze (Wesley Orth, Dávid Nemeskey, Eszter Ronai) |
| 15:40 | Coffee and Snack Break |
| | Session 12. Chair: Dan Parker |
| 16:00 | The Role of Locality and Formulation Ease during Sentence Production (Mudafia Zafar, Samar Husain) |
| 16:30 | Investigating Word Order and Givenness Effects as Part of Expected-first Strategies in Information Structure (Torsten Jachmann, Heiner Drenhaus, Francesca Delogu, Matthew Crocker) |
| 17:00 | Language Production for Source-Goal Motion Events: Factors Affecting Goal Mention (Monica Do, James Kesan) |
| 17:30 | Awards & Closing (5:30-5:50pm) |

Poster Session A

| Title | Authors | Modality | Num |
|---|---|-----------|-----|
| Extending the English LexTALE to assess vocabulary knowledge in native speakers and advanced L2 learners | Robert Fiorentino, Münir Özturhan, Andrew Collins, Xiao Yang, Braden Swaim, Manuel Carreiras, Simona Mancini, Lesa Hoffman, Alison Gabriele | In-person | A1 |
| Maybe now, not later: online processing of possibility and negation in adults and 2-year-olds | Maxime Tulling, Vishal Arvindam, Ailís Cournane | In-person | A2 |
| Cross-event lexical features are accessed in verb lexicalization | Sarah Hye-yeon Lee, Anna Papafragou | In-person | A3 |
| Probing large language models for implicit learning of aphasia types | Thomas Clark, Edward Gibson, Roger Levy | In-person | A4 |
| Referent Modification is Affected by Cross-Linguistic Transfer in Bilingual Older Adults | Irina Sekerina, Aleksandra Skorobogatova, Si On Yoon | In-person | A5 |
| Fewer predictions in L1 source language in consecutive interpreting when cognitive load is high | Shuqi Wang, Xiaocong Chen, Zhenguang Cai | In-person | A6 |
| Syntactic Effects on Agreement Attraction in Vocab-Limited Reading Experiments | Suhas Arehalli, Tal Linzen | In-person | A7 |
| Feature distortion and memory updating: Experimental and modeling evidence | Maayan Keshev, Brian Dillon | In-person | A8 |
| SPAWNing priming predictions with an uncertainty-based reanalysis mechanism reveals distinct representations of reduced and full relative clauses in English. | Grusha Prasad, Tal Linzen | In-person | A9 |
| Some but not all speakers sometimes but not always derive scalar implicatures | Sonia Ramotowska, Paul Marty, Leendert Van Maanen, Yasutada Sudo | In-person | A10 |
| Modeling Hierarchical Structure during Comprehension in English with Transformer Grammars | Michael Wolfman, Donald Dunagan, John Hale | In-person | A11 |
| Emergence of island effects in causal vs. masked language model training | Andrew McInnerney | In-person | A12 |
| Dependency length shaped by strategic memory allocation: A corpus study in 11 languages | Weijie Xu, Richard Futrell | In-person | A13 |
| Korean lul and nun markers and exhaustivity implicatures in discourse | Hagyeong Shin, Victor Ferreira | In-person | A14 |

|--|---|-----------|-----|
| Attentional orienting and disfluency-related memory boost are intact in adults with moderate-severe traumatic brain injury | Evgeniia Diachek, Sarah Brown-Schmidt, Melissa Duff | In-person | A15 |
| Implicit scalar alternatives are recognized over intermediate durations but not long-term | Nikole Patson, E. Matthew Husband | In-person | A16 |
| Implicit questions-under-discussion raise expectations only in at-issue main clauses | Runyi Yao, E. Matthew Husband, Daniel Altshuler | In-person | A17 |
| Different structural boundaries have different effects on dependency resolution | Lalitha Balachandran, John Duff, Pranav Anand, Amanda Rysling | In-person | A18 |
| Observing gestures at learning aids phonological and semantic L2 lexical processing | Laura Morett | In-person | A19 |
| The count/mass distinction in classifier languages: Insights from ERPs on the processing of Korean number morphology | Sea Hee Choi, Si On Yoon, Yumin Chung, James Yoon, Kara Federmeier | In-person | A20 |
| *Eye movements during silent reading of poetry reflect metric and rhyme structure | Katerina Drakoulaki, Yang Di, Mara Breen | In-person | A21 |
| *Effects of surprisal in (long-distance) licensing of Turkish NPIs | Nazik Dinçtopal Deniz, Özge Bakay, Jaklin Kornfilt | In-person | A22 |
| *Memory for violated expectations in semantic focus | Lalitha Balachandran, Morwenna Hoeks, John Boye-Lynn, Nick Van Handel, Amanda Rysling | In-person | A23 |
| Testing a rational account of fragment usage with pseudo-interactive experiments | Robin Lemke | In-person | A24 |
| The role of semantic context in spoken word recognition: Prediction and recovery or optimal cue integration? | Wednesday Bushong, Daniel LaMarche | In-person | A25 |
| MEG evidence for predictive and proactive speech segmentation into morphemes | Suhail Matar, Alec Marantz | In-person | A26 |
| Cross-linguistic differences in incremental planning under message uncertainty | Arella Gussow, Maryellen MacDonald | In-person | A27 |
| Priming abstract modal representations in modals with causatives | Angelica Hill, Shota Momma | In-person | A28 |
| Is the octopus regenerating?: Comparing timing effects in sentence recall and picture description tasks | Allison Dods, Utku Türk, Allison Macdonald, Sebastián Mancha, Colin Phillips | In-person | A29 |

| | | | |
|--|--|-----------------------|-----|
| Testing three hypotheses of prosodic processing during lexical access | Andrés Buxó-Lugo | In-person | A30 |
| *Usefulness of prosodic cues in parsing: Evidence from a novel cross-modal maze task | Zeping Liu, Xin Chen, Chien-Jer Lin | In-person | A31 |
| *Consider Everything Anyway | Douglas Roland | In-person | A32 |
| Wh-island effects and d-linking effects in wh-in situ questions | Zheng Shen, Beth Chan | In-person | A40 |
| Active expectations in processing Urdu and Hindi correlative structures | Urwa Ali, Sanvi Dubey, Ishita Kumar, Hayah Siddiqui, Dave Kush | In-person | A41 |
| Does deictic perspective shift exist? Exploring perspectival integration with come and go | Elsi Kaiser | In-person | A42 |
| *A subject-object locality effect in comprehension: Evidence from Japanese | Shinnosuke Isono, Yuki Hirose | In-person | A43 |
| Probing Facilitatory and Inhibitory Interference with English Ditransitives | Matthew Kogan, Matt Wagers | In-person | A44 |
| Number, animacy, and individual variation in the processing of cataphora | Steven Foley, Byron Ahn, Lauren Ackerman | In-person | A45 |
| Investigating syntactic effects in NPI illusions in Turkish | Özge Bakay, Metehan Oğuz | In-person | A46 |
| Age Effects in Lexical Semantic Learning: Evidence from Uyghur Native Mandarin Second Language Acquisition | ZHAO ZHAO, Nasierding Zunong, Yingyi Luo | Zoom + Print + OSF | A50 |
| *Real-Time Computation of Social Hierarchy During Online Sentence Processing | Nayoung Kwon, Joonwoo Kim, Kichun Nam, Jeongseok Kim | Zoom + Print + OSF | A51 |
| Co-registration of mouse cursor and eye movements reveals comparable sensitivity of mouse and eye-tracking to prediction during language comprehension | Kayla Keyue Chen, Yiling Huo, Jiajian Xu, Zunni Wang, Fan Xia, Wing-Yee Chow | Zoom + Print + OSF | A52 |
| Three-year-olds can retain their knowledge of word meanings they learned one year ago: retrieval practice is critical for retention | Meili Luo, Felix Wang | Print + OSF | A53 |
| Only proficiency predicts older bilinguals' word segmentation abilities in their second language | Patricia Fuente-García, Julián Villegas, Irene de la Cruz-Pavía | Zoom + Print + OSF | A54 |
| The Perception of Emotional Prosody in Novice and Advanced L2 Chinese Learners | Cheng Xiao, Jiang Liu | Zoom + OSF | A55 |
| Eye Movements in Repeated Reading | Yoav Meiri, Yevgeni Berzak | Zoom + OSF | A56 |
| *Phase c-command and cataphora resolution in Chinese | Jun Lyu, Elsi Kaiser | OSF Only | A70 |

| | | | |
|---|--|----------|-----|
| Is Gender Inclusive Language inclusive? Evidence from Italian sentence processing. | Martina Abbondanza, Valeria Bonomi, Federica Durante, Carlo Reverberi, Francesca Foppolo | OSF Only | A71 |
| Rational comprehenders expect within-word exchange errors in Chinese sentence | Xuexian Lai, Fuyun Wu | OSF Only | A72 |
| The role of standards in scalar implicature processing of adjectives: A web-based visual world eye-tracking study | Stavroula Alexandropoulou, Nicole Gotzner | OSF Only | A73 |

Poster Session B

| Title | Authors | Modality | Num |
|---|--|-----------|-----|
| More modifications in older adults despite slower competitor activation | Si On Yoon, Caroline Schmidt, Jina Kim, Zara Harmon, Kristi Hendrickson | In-person | B1 |
| *Comprehension of Ambiguous Relative Clauses in Spanish, English, and Codeswitching. | James Anderson, Antje Muntendam | In-person | B2 |
| Bilinguals can predict upcoming ecological code-switches when given enough context | Lauren Salig, Jorge Valdés Kroff, Jeymi Menendez, Mia Lulli, L. Robert Slevc | In-person | B3 |
| L2 processing of world knowledge and classifier information: Evidence from visual world eye-tracking | Baorui Xu, Shuo Feng, Yipu Wei | In-person | B4 |
| Mandarin speakers undergoing attrition produce more explicit referring expressions | Yajun Liu, Antonella Sorace, Kenny Smith | In-person | B5 |
| The Top Down Role of Grammatical Knowledge During Mandarin-English Code-switching | Xueyang Huang, Liina Pyllkkänen | In-person | B6 |
| Constructing dependencies between wh-words and Q-particles in in-situ languages: The case of Vietnamese questions | Linh Pham, Elsi Kaiser | In-person | B7 |
| *Is syntax optimized for periodic neurobiological sampling? Evidence from 21 languages | Chia-Wen Lo, Mark Anderson, Lorenzo Titone, Lars Meyer | In-person | B8 |
| Learning discourse patterns through exposure: Mixed input helps identify informative categories | Jennifer Arnold | In-person | B9 |

| | | | |
|---|--|-----------|-----|
| Remembering Conversation in Group Settings | Sarah Brown-Schmidt, Christopher Jaeger, Kaitlin Lord, Aaron Benjamin | In-person | B10 |
| Comprehension of Fluent and Disfluent Relative Clauses in Spoken Sentences | Matthew Lowder, Claire O'Shaughnessy | In-person | B11 |
| Alien vs. Book: Humanoid sources elicit stronger grammar-source associations | Madeleine Wade, Valerie Langlois, Angela Montiel, Albert Kim | In-person | B12 |
| Prediction error and antecedent competition: ERPs on ambiguous plural pronouns in German | DERYA COKAL, Massimo Poesio, Petra Schumacher, Klaus Von Heusinger, Markus Philipp | In-person | B13 |
| Do Large Language Models know who did what to whom? | Joseph Denning, Xiaohan Guo, Bryor Sneffjella, Idan Blank | In-person | B14 |
| Attraction Effects in the Processing of Long-distance Chinese Classifiers: An Eye-tracking Study | Xiaoyu Liu, Nayoung Kwon | In-person | B15 |
| False memories for predictable words are not a consequence of prediction but backward semantic association: Evidence from German | Katja Haeuser | In-person | B16 |
| Sneezing the napkin off the table: Online comprehension of grammatically creative sentences | Tobias Ungerer, Caitlyn Antal, Roberto de Almeida | In-person | B17 |
| Is perspective-taking in real-time language comprehension spontaneous or strategic? Evidence from eye-movements and grain of coordination | Yipu Wei, Yingjia Wan, Michael Tanenhaus | In-person | B18 |
| Name Explorer App: A Resource for Rigorous and Replicable Stimulus Design | Lauren Ackerman | In-person | B19 |
| The interaction of syntactic focus and semantic prediction in comprehension | Eleonora Beier, Adrian Zhou, Fernanda Ferreira | In-person | B20 |
| Focus alternatives are available early: no influence from semantic priming or particle choice | Christian Muxica, Jesse Harris | In-person | B21 |
| Words, Subwords, and Morphemes: Surprisal Theory and Units of Prediction | Sathvik Nair, Colin Phillips, Philip Resnik | In-person | B22 |
| Islands for wh-extraction and wh-in-situ are backgrounded in Singlish | Beth Chan, Zheng Shen | In-person | B24 |
| Perceptual adaptation to novel speech patterns differs by talker identity | Jeonghwa Cho, Harim Kwon | In-person | B25 |
| Assessing common ground via language-based cultural consensus in humans and LLMs | Sophie Domanski, Rachel Rudinger, Marine Carpuat, Patrick Shafto, Yi Ting Huang | In-person | B26 |

| | | | |
|--|--|--------------------|-----|
| Thematic role is the major determinant of forming referential dependencies | Suet-Ying Lam, Shota Momma, Brian Dillon | In-person | B27 |
| Scene descriptions reveal meaningful clustering in language production. | Karina Tachihara, Madison Barker, Beverly Cotter, Taylor Hayes, John Henderson, Adrian Zhou, Fernanda Ferreira | In-person | B28 |
| Do Higher Reanalysis Costs Promote Lingerin Memory of Initial Mispars?: Evidence from Japanese Garden-Path Sentences | Rei Emura, Yousuke Kawachi, Masatoshi Koizumi | In-person | B29 |
| Comparing the processing of two types of durative-to-punctual coercion | Johanna Alstott, Athulya Aravind | In-person | B30 |
| Sentence processing speed of deaf and hard-of-hearing children in noise: Effects of normal vs. fast speaking rate | Rosanne Abrahamse, Rebecca Holt, Nan Xu Rattanasone, Titia Benders, Joerg Buchholz, Katherine Demuth | In-person | B31 |
| *Online Processing of, and Adaptation to, Nonbinary Pronouns | Vic Tianlan Wen, Kirby Conrod, Daniel Grodner | In-person | B32 |
| Manipulating syntax without taxing working memory: MEG correlates of syntactic dependencies in a Verb-Second language | Simone Krogh, Liina Pyllkkänen | In-person | B33 |
| A hierarchical Bayesian model for syntactic priming | Weijie Xu, Richard Futrell | In-person | B34 |
| *Illicit syntactic representations in garden-path reanalysis: New evidence from reflexives | Yang Fan, E. Matthew Husband | In-person | B35 |
| Parallel processing of Chinese words depends on both n-gram frequency and structure | Kuan-Jung Huang | In-person | B36 |
| The effects of website reading experience on constructional preferences | Michelle Perdomo, Duane Watson | In-person | B40 |
| Speech timing evidence on the (in)dependence of roots and inflection in production | Utku Turk, Colin Phillips | In-person | B41 |
| *The Processing of Filler-gap Dependency in Korean Control Constructions | Youngin Lee | In-person | B42 |
| Interference effects in Tagalog reflexive processing: A visual world study | Jed Sam Pizarro-Guevara, Brian Dillon | In-person | B43 |
| Cross-linguistic comparison in reading sentences of uniform length: Visual-perceptual demands override readers' experience | Olga Parshina, Nina Zdorova, Victor Kuperman | Zoom + Print + OSF | B50 |

| | | | |
|--|--|-----------------------|-----|
| Negative disjunctive sentences in child and adult Romanian: A preference for strong interpretations | Adina Camelia Bleotu, Lyn Tieu, Mara Panaitescu, Gabriela Bîlbîie, Anton Benz, Andreea Nicolae | Zoom + Print + OSF | B51 |
| "Like me" gender biases emerge in boys before girls: Evidence from production of binomials | Shi Hui Wu, Holly Branigan, Nina Liu, Hugh Rabagliati | Zoom + Print + OSF | B52 |
| Sensitivity to telicity with manner-of-motion verbs and complex Goal prepositions in child Romanian | Ioana Stoicescu | Zoom + Print + OSF | B53 |
| Linguistic register variation and linguistic background modulate the processing of morphosyntactic errors | Camilla Masullo, Alba Casado, Evelina Leivada, Antonella Sorace | Print + OSF | B54 |
| EEG Evidence of Hierarchical Structure Building in Sentence Processing | Ran Cao, Meili Luo, Felix Wang | Print + OSF | B55 |
| Processing Subject and Object Agreement in Light Verb Construction: Electrophysiological Insights from Hindi | Anna Mathew, R Muralikrishnan, Mahima Gulati, Shikha Bhattamishra, Kamal Choudhary | Zoom + Print + OSF | B56 |
| Asymmetry of productive & receptive sentence processing deficits in post-stroke aphasia | Jeremy Yeaton, Danielle Fahey, William Matchin, Gregory Hickok | OSF Only | B70 |
| Towards a psycholinguistic model of bracketing paradoxes | Anna Pryslopska, Titus von der Malsburg | OSF Only | B71 |
| Decreased competition between semantically related referents in Developmental Language Disorder | Jina Kim, Zara Harmon, Kristi Hendrickson, Si On Yoon | OSF Only | B73 |
| Are Informativity-Based Linguistic Predictions Driven by Gender Stereotypes? | Hailin Hao, Muxuan He, Zuzanna Fuchs | OSF Only | B74 |
| Group membership impact on referential communication | Inbal Kuperwasser, Einat Shetreet | OSF Only | B75 |
| Evidence for Competition Resolution Difficulties During Complex Sentence Processing in Adults With Developmental Language Disorder | Stewart McCauley, Zara Harmon, Si On Yoon, Philip Combiths, Bruce Tomblin, Kristi Hendrickson | OSF Only | B76 |

Poster Session C

| Title | Authors | Modality | Num |
|--|------------|-----------|-----|
| Morphological Decomposition in Heritage Turkish Speakers in the U.S. | Esra Eldem | In-person | C1 |

| | | | |
|--|---|-----------|-----|
| Form-based prediction is a piece of ceke: Young children predict the form of upcoming words during natural storytelling contexts. | Anthony Yacovone, Briony Waite, Jesse Snedeker | In-person | C2 |
| Understanding emotion in different languages: Emotional prosody recognition in bilinguals and the impact of background noise | Gabrielle Stokes, Adriana Miller, Michele Diaz, Suzanne Brouwer, Janet van Hell | In-person | C3 |
| *Examining sensitivity to binding constraints by Chinese learners of English: An Event-Related Potential (ERP) study | Xuan Wang, Alison Gabriele, Robert Fiorentino | In-person | C4 |
| At What Cost? Comprehension of Habitual Code-Switching Modulated by Language Experience and Cultural Identity | Ariel Chan, Shoichi Iwasaki, Judith Kroll | In-person | C5 |
| Disagreements do not automatically raise the standard of precision | Yifan Wu, Helena Aparicio | In-person | C6 |
| Following the conversation: Topic shifts elicit switch costs in naturalistic discourse | Kelly Marshall, Avery Vess, Jared Novick, L. Robert Slevc | In-person | C7 |
| Gentle plumbers and forceful florists: Processing gender stereotyped adjectives and nouns | Stephanie Hammond-Thrasher, Juhani Järvi­kivi | In-person | C8 |
| A new paradigm for inducing verb tense errors | Heidi Lorimor, Jimmy Pronchick, Hadley Morgan | In-person | C9 |
| Speaker's Demographic Background Modulates Listener's Neural Correlates of Spoken Word Processing | Hanlin Wu, Xufeng Duan, Zhenguang Cai | In-person | C10 |
| 'Negation-blind' N400 effect disappears when lexical priming is controlled | Daiki Asami, Chao Han, Jacob Burger, Deanna Dunlop, Neemias Filho, Yue Lu, Effah Morad, Chenyue Zhao, Arild Hestvik | In-person | C11 |
| An EEG investigation into early syntactic processing: A rapid parallel visual presentation study of agreement and WH-dependencies in English | Donald Dunagan, Tyson Jordan, Michael Wolfman, Dustin Chacón | In-person | C12 |
| Not moving, fast: An HD-EEG parallel reading study on Urdu and Mandarin Chinese wh-in-situ | Hareem Khokhar, Jill McLendon, Donald Dunagan, Zahin Hoque, Tyson Jordan, Dustin Chacón | In-person | C13 |
| Homographs Revisited: ERP Insights Into the Dynamic Interplay Between Top-down Predictive and Bottom-up Reactive Processes | Thomas Hansen, Anthony Yacovone, Lin Wang, Gina Kuperberg | In-person | C14 |

| | | | |
|---|---|-----------|-----|
| Aspectual Coercion: A New Method to Probe Aspectual Commitments | Ugurcan Vurgun, Yue Ji, Anna Papafragou | In-person | C15 |
| Eye-Tracking Measures of Processing Difficulty in Standard Arabic | Nicole Dodd, Fatima Boush, Tommi Leung, Fernanda Ferreira, Emily Morgan | In-person | C16 |
| *The processing of anaphoric encapsulation versus coreference in Spanish: An experimental approach with eye-tracking. | Celia Hernández Pérez | In-person | C17 |
| Large-scale eye-tracking while reading benchmark shows surprisal captures early fixations, but not regressions | William Timkey, Suhas Arehalli, Kuan-Jung Huang, Grusha Prasad, Tal Linzen, Brian Dillon | In-person | C18 |
| *Preschoolers' use of verb and event knowledge in online reference comprehension | Yukun Yu, Amanda Rose Yuile, Damian Ishak, Cynthia Fisher | In-person | C19 |
| Can Attention Modulate Predictive Eye-Movements in Sentence Processing? | Edith Kaan, Hannah Treadway, Jude Singleton, Amy Kessler, Claire Kuntz, Jorge Valdés Kroff, Theres Grüter | In-person | C20 |
| Impacts of Observed Iconic Gesture on Comprehension of Accented Spoken Narratives | Sylvia Young, Sarah Grey, Laura Morett | In-person | C21 |
| Across Levels of Representation: Pragmatic Expectations about Prosody Influence the Perception of Loudness | Moshe Poliak, Karenni Caton, Anna Zhou, Edward Gibson | In-person | C22 |
| Expectation-based comprehension of linguistic input: facilitation from visual context | Subha Nawer Pushpita, Roger Levy | In-person | C23 |
| Animacy does not modulate the subject relative clause advantage in Tagalog | Ivan Bondoc, Dave Kush | In-person | C24 |
| Perception of Regional Spoken Arabic by Native Speakers | Amal Alotaibi, Cynthia Lukyanenko | In-person | C25 |
| Referential modification and memory for object features | Caitlin Volante, Evgeniia Diachek, Patrick Sherlock, Sarah Brown-Schmidt | In-person | C26 |
| The effect of speech planning and prosodic structure in speech production: How do planning and prosodic structure interact? | Jungyun Seo, Ruaridh Purse, Jelena Krivokapić | In-person | C27 |
| Does UID constrain the usage and processing of Gapping in German? | Bozhidara Hristova, Robin Lemke, Lisa Schäfer, Heiner Drenhaus, Ingo Reich | In-person | C28 |
| Prosodic prominence hinders word recall in German | Barbara Zeyer, Martina Penke | In-person | C29 |

| | | | |
|--|---|-----------------------|-----|
| *Garden path and object-extracted relative clause processing in congenitally blind adults: evidence from self-paced listening. | Emily Silvano, Ziqi Chen, Zaida McClinton, Marina Bedny | In-person | C30 |
| Marking definiteness in Nuosu Yi: a counterexample to the Blocking Principle? | Nianpo Su, Miloje Despic, Helena Aparicio | In-person | C31 |
| How many Selves are Bound? Distributivity and Number Effects in Bound Reflexives | Cassie Davenport, Eszter Rónai | In-person | C32 |
| Effects of verb directedness and individual differences on the processing of reflexives | Metehan Oğuz, Elsi Kaiser | In-person | C33 |
| Instead of hamburger, how about eating restaurant? The Processing of Canonical and Non-Canonical Arguments in Mandarin Chinese | Hsin-Ju Wu, I-Ta Hsieh, Chia-Hsuan Liao | In-person | C40 |
| Selective nature of NPI illusions in Korean | Unsub Shin, Sanghoun Song | In-person | C41 |
| Interference leads to generalization | Abigail Fergus, Nicole Cuneo, Adele Goldberg | In-person | C42 |
| Being a team player: The influence of group membership(s) on children's lexical choices | Thomas St. Pierre, Jida Jaffan, Craig Chambers, Elizabeth Johnson | In-person | C43 |
| Closest Conjunct Agreement modulates interferences in processing dependencies: Evidence from Korean honorific agreements | Myung Hye Yoo, So Young Lee | In-person | C44 |
| Differential online and offline effects of misparse plausibility on post-interpretive representations | Jack Dempsey, Kiel Christianson | In-person | C45 |
| Agreement Attraction across Sentence Positions | Frank Jayne, Shayne Sloggett | In-person | C46 |
| Canonical Argument Alignment Modulates Gap, but not RP, Acceptability in English | Matthew Kogan, Mandy Cartner, Ivy Sichel, Maziar Toosarvandani, Matt Wagers | In-person | C47 |
| Expecting the unexpected: Examining the interplay between world knowledge and context in relatively unconstraining scenarios | Chengjie Jiang, Ruth Filik | Zoom + Print + OSF | C50 |
| *Priming ditransitives in L2 Mandarin: Error-driven learning affects production but not real-time predictive processing | Yanxin Zhu, Theres Grüter | Zoom + Print + OSF | C51 |
| *The Naturalness of Events | Margaret Ryan, Iain Giblin, Linda Cupples | Zoom + Print + OSF | C52 |
| Who is [not] expected to use singular they? | Benjamin Weissman | Zoom + OSF | C53 |

| | | | |
|---|--|-----------------------|-----|
| *What parenthesized modifiers (may) mean: Experimental evidence from English & Korean | Carolyn Anderson, Yoolim Kim | Zoom + Print + OSF | C54 |
| *ChatGPT Is Not Just ‘Good Enough’ But ‘Best Enough’: Comparing Garden-Path Processing in GPT-3.5, GPT-4, and Humans | Jonghyun Lee, Jeong-Ah Shin, Sung-Eun Lee | Print + OSF | C55 |
| Processing of wh-questions in Standard Indonesian: evidence from ERPs | Bernard Jap, Yu-Yin Hsu, Stephen Politzer-Ahles | Print + OSF | C56 |
| Does verb bias modulate thematic role assignment? | Bernard Jap, Yu-Yin Hsu | OSF Only | C70 |
| An eye-tracking study of syntactic and semantic facilitatory interference in Japanese | Atsushi Yuhaku, Yoko Nakano | OSF Only | C71 |

| Disentangling grammar and experience: On the role of environmental exposure to Spanish-English code-switching | Hannah Treadway, Josh Higdon, Jorge Valdés Kroff | In-person | D6 |
| El Tiny or El Escritorio Tiny? Exploring L2's Influence on Adjective Placement in Spanish | Beverly Cotter, Fernanda Ferreira | In-person | D7 |
| *The meaning behind a code-switch | Yanting Li, Greg Scontras, Richard Futrell | In-person | D8 |
| The effects of distinct code-switching types on cognitive control | Edith Kaan, Rodrigo Mello Medina, Guadalupe Diaz, Kirthana Sane, Savannah Chandler, Claire Kuntz, Jorge Valdés Kroff, Souad Kheder | In-person | D9 |
| Shared syntax in bilinguals: Does code-switching affect the strength of cross-language structural priming? | Yung Han Khoe, Gerrit Jan Kootstra, Edith Kaan, Rob Schoonen, Stefan Frank | In-person | D10 |
| Lexical Access during Naturalistic Listening in L1 and L2 Speakers of English | Tatyana Levari, Jarom Larman, Briony Waite, Jesse Snedeker | In-person | D11 |
| On the limits of LLM Surprisal as a functional explanation of ERPs | Benedict Krieger, Harm Brouwer, Christoph Aurnhammer, Matthew Crocker | In-person | D12 |
| Evaluating the Limits of a Minimalist Grammar Parser on Korean Double Relative Clauses | So Young Lee, Aniello De Santo | In-person | D13 |
| Evidence against the modularity of syntax in large language models | Thomas McGee, Idan Blank | In-person | D14 |
| *Different interpretational preferences in pronominal resolution during off- and on-line sentence processing: Evidence from Korean with pro and overt pronouns | Nayoung Kwon, Soyoung Lee | In-person | D15 |
| How to ask complex questions in Polish: The role of discourse context | Jakub Suchojad, Carolyn Lutken, Karin Stromswold | In-person | D16 |
| Scrutinizing adaptation: do people only adapt to infrequent discourse structures? | Simantika Roy, Elyce Johnson, Jennifer Arnold | In-person | D17 |
| Implicit Causality Affects Pronoun Use in Interactive Fragment Completion Tasks | Yining Ye, Jennifer Arnold | In-person | D18 |
| Processing arguments in Korean nominal predicates | Nikolas Webster, Hanyoung Byun, Matt Wagers | In-person | D19 |
| The modulation of predictive processing in the context of multitalker babble | Carrie Jackson, Theres Grüter, Navin Viswanathan | In-person | D20 |

| | | | |
|---|--|-----------|-----|
| Symmetrical Or Not?: A New Method To Probe Real-Time Semantic Categorization | Ugurcan Vurgun, Heesu Yun, Barbara Landau, John Trueswell | In-person | D21 |
| Eye movements and multi-utterance event descriptions | Madison Barker, Beverly Cotter, Karina Tachihara, Adrian Zhou, Fernanda Ferreira | In-person | D22 |
| Individual differences in verbal working memory impacts prediction performance during sentence comprehension | Yu Lu, Randi Martin, Simon Fischer-Baum | In-person | D23 |
| Prosodic and syntactic disambiguation of German generic masculine nouns | Philipp Rauth, Robin Lemke, Lisa Schäfer | In-person | D24 |
| The organization of memory for language following memory impairment | Melissa Evans, Sharice Clough, Melissa Duff, Sarah Brown-Schmidt | In-person | D25 |
| Discourse relevance guides modifier choice in reference production | Kelly Cheuk, Hannah Rohde, Chris Cummins | In-person | D26 |
| More cues are not always “better”: Resolving instrument atypicality in the visual domain | Serpil Karabüklü, Diane Brentari | In-person | D27 |
| Failure teaches success: Linking real-time event processing & production with negation | Victor Gomes, Yubin Huh, Heesu Yun, John Trueswell | In-person | D28 |
| Contextual effects on the processing of object control in temporal adjuncts | Jeffrey Green, Eross Coito-Paz | In-person | D29 |
| Interference in planning: Accuracy and timing evidence from real-time possessive pronoun production | Eun-Kyoung Lee, Sol Lago | In-person | D30 |
| Social information in reference resolution: Last names and gender bias | Elsi Kaiser, Claire Benet Post, Deborah Ho, Haley Hsu, Meona Khetrupal, Madeline Rouse, Sabrina Soto | In-person | D31 |
| Structural and Interpretative Factors in the Processing of Zeugma | Cassandra Jacobs, Aniello De Santo, Loïc Grobol | In-person | D41 |
| The role of resumptive pronouns in comprehension of Korean double relative clauses | Myung Hye Yoo, So Young Lee | In-person | D42 |
| Getting to the ‘root’ of semantic and syntactic processing of morphologically complex words: MEG evidence from Arabic | Suhail Matar, Samantha Wray, Sherine Bou Dargham, Linnaea Stockall, Alec Marantz | In-person | D43 |
| Processing Reflexive Pronouns in Sinhala | Malkini Chandrasiri, Shayne Sloggett | In-person | D44 |
